Working Together for Sustainable and Healthy Urban Transport: a capacity-building workshop

Kateryna Malkova
Information Center “Green Dossier”
Objectives

The major objective of the workshop was to encourage and enhance cooperation between transport, health and environment policymakers in Ukraine and other Eastern European countries in developing strategies and practical approaches to implement sustainable and healthy urban transport policies.
Implementation steps

- Presentation in Batumi – October 1, 2010
- Concept paper – October – November, 2010
- Coordination meetings – December, 2010 and February, 2011
- Coordination meetings with the Ministries and Kyiv City State Administration – March – May, 2011
- Experts mission – May, 2011
- Workshop – June 8-9, 2011
- Reporting – June – August, 2011
Elements of success

- “Hot” topic for Kyiv
- Players interested in collaboration
- Filling communication gaps
- Cooperation with the city administration

- European Championship 2012
Role of mediator - NGO

- Ministry of Infrastructure
- Ministry of Environment
- Ministry of Health
- Department of Environment
- Department of Transport
- Kyiv City State Administration
- Economic Department
- Department of Environment
- International Department
- Health Department
- NGOs
- Scientists
- Programs
- Education
- Business
Workshop participants

60 representatives from more than 10 countries:

- National and local authorities
- Representatives of private sectors
- Representatives of education and scientific institutions
- Non-governmental organisations
- International projects
- International experts

- Responsible for environment, health and transport
Passing the baton
Raising awareness
Tram is safe and convenient!
- There should be more trams
- The old routes should be restored
- Timetable
- Improving air conditioning systems especially in summer