

Road Transport and Atmospheric Air Pollution in Georgia

Noe Megrelishvili
The Ministry of Environment
Protection and Natural Resources of Georgia
30 September – 1 October
Batumi

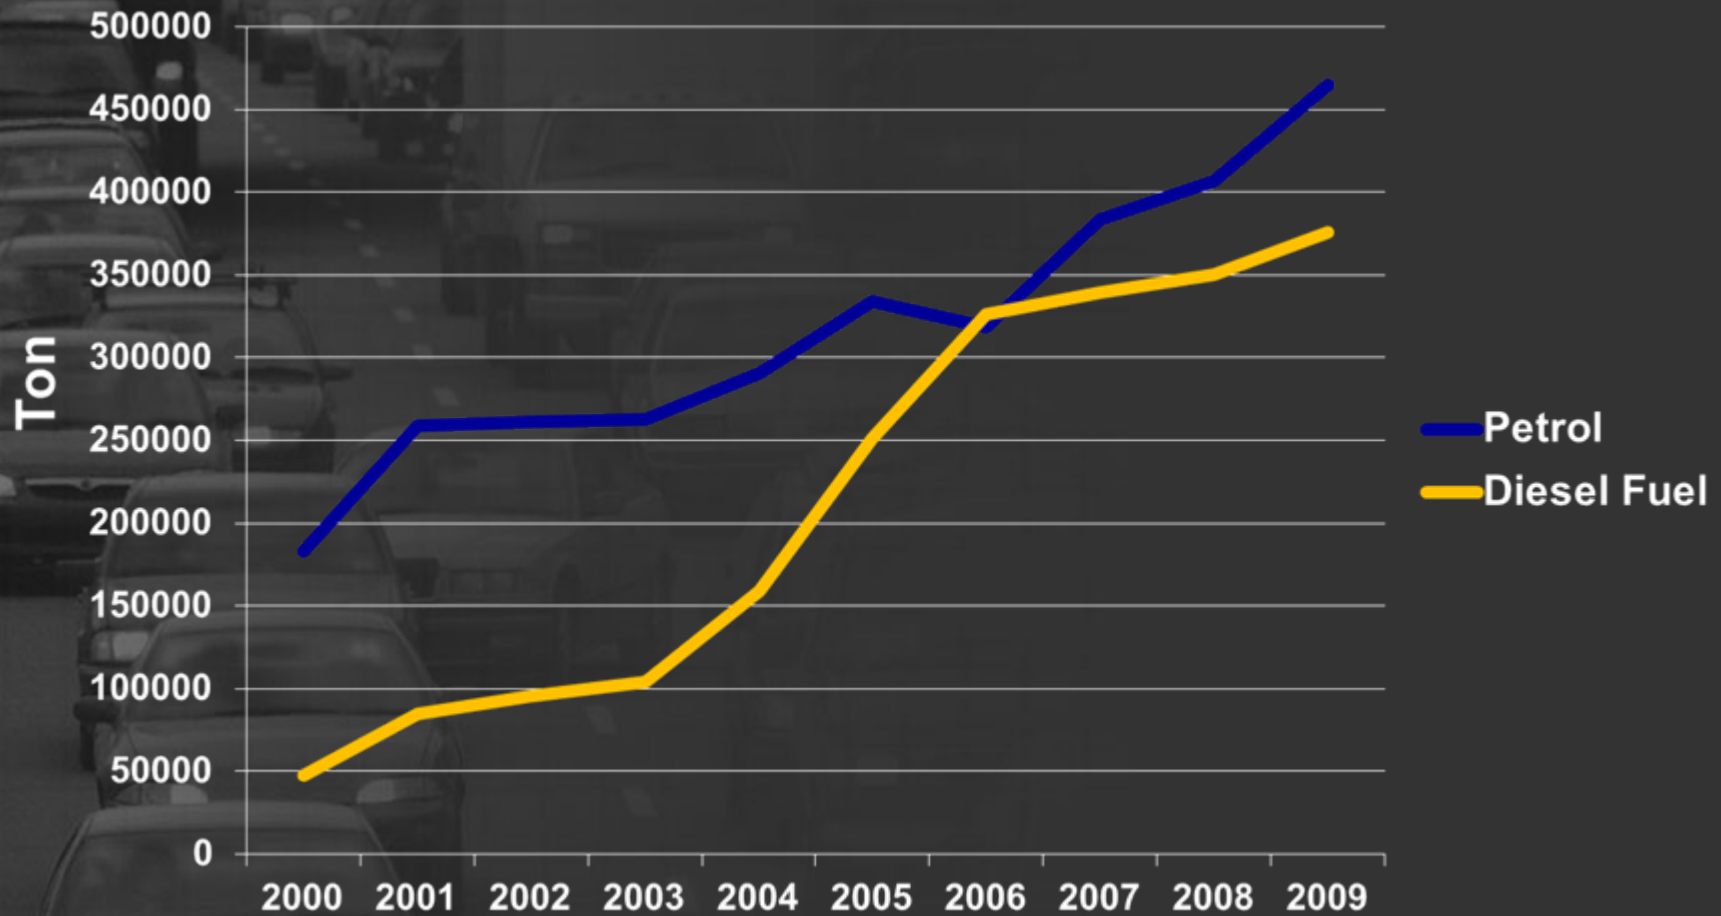

Description of Georgian Fleet of Vehicles

The Structure of Georgian Fleet of Vehicles by Age Groups in 2009

Dynamics of Road Transport Fuel Consumption

Description of Motor Transport Fuel Quality

Limited Ingredients of Petrol	Until 1 st of January 2011	From 1 st of January 2011	From 1 st of January 2012
Lead	≤ 0,013 g/liter	≤ 0,005 g/liter	≤ 0,005 g/liter
Benzene	≤ 5 % (volumetric)	≤ 3,0 % (volumetric)	≤ 3,0 % (volumetric)
Aromatic Hydrocarbons	≤ 45 % (volumetric)	≤ 42 % (volumetric)	≤ 42 % (volumetric)
Sulphur	≤ 500 mg/kg	≤ 200 mg/kg	≤ 150 mg/kg

Dynamics of emissions from Transport Sector

Share of emissions from different sectors of Georgian economy in 2009

Positive Changes

- Improvement of Public Transport
- New Ticketing System
- New Parking System
- Optimization of Traffic Movement
- New System of Crossroads
- Road Maintenance

Thank you very much for your attention

Noe Megrelishvili

The Air Protection Division

Ministry of Environment Protection and Natural Resources of Georgia

6 Gulua str. 0114

Tbilisi, Georgia

tel: (+995 32) 72 72 28

fax: (+995 32) 72 72 28

E-mail: noe_megrelishvili@caucasus.net