French-Russian cooperation in the framework of THE PEP Academy and THE PEP Partnership on integration of transport, health and environmental concerns in urban and spatial planning
WHAT WAS DECLARED IN PARIS?

- 4 THE PEP Goals were confirmed
- new 5th Goal was declared – ”Integration of transport, health and environmental concerns in urban and spatial planning”
- new Partnership on Goal 5 was initiated by Russia and France
- new THE PEP mechanism was proposed – “THE PEP Academy”
WHAT RUSSIA IS DOING IN THE FRAMEWORK OF THE FRENCH-RUSSIAN PARTNERSHIP?
CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS IN RUSSIA in 2017-2018

- Seminar “Modern methods of traffic management”, Sankt-Peterburg, May, 2017 – 154 participants
- Conference “Ensuring safety and quality of public transport services as a direction of the State transport policy”, Tumen City, June, 2017 – 167 participants
- Conference “Ensuring of traffic safety in context of development of new urban transport technologies and non-motorized travel”, Orel City, July, 2017 – 152 participants
- International ESCAP- MoT Conference “City and Transport: Safety, Efficiency, Sustainability”, Khabarovsk City, September, 2017 – 143 participants
- Conference “New challenges in urban mobility management”, Moscow, December, 2017

For 2018 there were already organized 3 seminars and 2 are planning – one in September in Omsk and one in October in Sankt Peterburg.
INTERNATIONAL CYCLING CONGRESS IN MOSCOW (April, 2017)
CYCLING CONGRESS IN MOSCOW
WINTER CYCLING CONGRESS AND PARADE IN MOSCOW (FEBRUARY, 2018)
NEXT RELY RACE!
INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE!

The International Conference
“Introduction of innovative green and healthy technical and technological solutions in road and urban passenger transport: global trends and opportunities”
within the XVII Annual Strategic Planning Leaders Forum of the Regions and Cities of Russia

Russia, Saint Petersburg
Park Inn by Radisson Pribaltiyskaya Hotel

23 October 2018
The main idea of the Conference is to improve the urban transport systems with the aims of achieving sustainable urban mobility, ensuring of green and healthy environment, improving the quality of life of urban population.

The website of the Forum is www.forumstrategov.ru.

The organizers of the Conference:
• The Ministry of Transport of the Russian Federation;
• JSC "NIIAT»;
• ICSER "Leontiev`s Centre"

More than 150 participants from all over the world are expected!
LECTURES ON SUSTAINABLE URBAN TRANSPORT IN MOSCOW AUTOMOBILE AND ROAD CONSTRUCTION TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (MADI) IN MARCH-APRIL, 2017

(lecturers from US, Great Britain, Germany, Russia. More than 250 participants from all over the Russia – students, MD and PhD students, experts, officials, university lecturers, Internet translation)
PRESENTATION THE PEP AT THE “FORUM OF STRATEGISTS” IN SANKT-PETERBURG IN OCTOBER 2017

• Report of Dr. Donchenko, THE PEP Bureau Member, “Development of non-motorized kinds of movement and small personal electric mobility vehicles as an important alternative to the use of personal cars in cities” (as a part of “GREEN MOBILITY ” project)
Development of Strategies in Land-use and Transport Planning in Urban Areas
Decision-makers Manual (translation of EU Recommendations in Russian)
THE PEP Academy

In the framework of the Agreement between OVSQ (France), MADI and NIIAT (Russia)
MEETING IN MOSCOW AT THE BEGINNING OF 2017
Signing of the Agreement between Universite de Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines (OVSQ) (France) and Moscow Automobile and Road Construction Technical University (MADI) and Scientific and Research Institute of Motor Transport (NIIAT) (Russia)
Signing the Agreement between OVSQ, MADI and NIIAT
Signing the Agreement between OVSQ, MADI and NIIAT
MEETING IN VERSAILLES
in June 2018
Module 1. “Urbanization and transport. Common issues”

Transport problems of modern cities. Negative effects of transport activity (traffic and environmental safety, health impact, climate impact and so on). Sustainability of urban transport systems functioning concept and definitions. Sustainable mobility. Safe system approach. “Smart cities”, ”liveable cities”. Risks and threats connected with urban transport systems.
SUSTAINABLE URBAN TRANSPORT

Module 2. “Environmental and health impact of transport”

Module 3. “Sustainable planning of urban transport systems”

Module 4. “Transport demand management”

Module 5. “Traffic management and engineering for sustainable mobility”

Module 6. “Public transport”

Module 7. "State Policy in the field of urban transport sustainability"

COOPERATION IN 2017-2018

- Participation of 2 Russian students in OVSQ Summer School in July 2017 - realized
- Establishment of MADI Chair “Sustainable Urban Transport” on the base of NIIAT - realized
- Cooperative preparation of Joint MD Training Programe “Sustainable Urban Transport” (2 cooperative modules with OVSQ) - in the process of preparation
- Questions for further discussion – language, financing, presenting diplomas, THE PEP role
- From Russian side – 5 MD students began to prepare their dissertations in 2017
- Regular Skype contacts between OVSQ and MADI, next working visits
- Wait for the other interested parties to cooperate
NEXT STEPS IN 2018-2019

• In 2018 3 Russian MD students will come to OVSQ for training during 5 months
• At the beginning of 2019 2 French MD students will come to MADI in Moscow for training during 5 months
• 1 French and 1 Russian professors will give lecturers in Russia and France properly
• Further work on joint training modules
WHAT SUPPORT FROM THE PEP
DO WE NEED?
SUSTAINABLE URBAN TRANSPORT

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION!